

Welfare Officers x2 (male and female)

Club Welfare Officers ensures that members have a trained and trusted person to speak to about a concern either within the club or at times, outside of the club. A Welfare Officer has the right skills and knowledge to manage any concern raised in an appropriate way that would not hamper any investigation and shares information accordingly.

Responsibilities

The Welfare Officer with the support of the Committee has the responsibility to:

- Implement effective safeguarding policy/ procedures and keep them up to date
- Promote safeguarding at the club and encourage good practice
- Respond appropriately to safeguarding concerns and report to the Chair on safeguarding matters
- Deal effectively with breaches of the codes of conduct, poor practice, or allegations of abuse
- Attend the relevant Welfare Officer safeguarding course.
